Revisions

The 'Charging Guideline' should be changed, in specific the part about 'Execution', to be changed from;

Execution is usually only issued in cases of repeat or grievous offences. The convict is executed by beheading, by an acknowledged Executioner of the Crown. An Officer of the Crown may be temporarily named as Executioner by the Court.

To the following;

Execution is usually only issued in cases of repeat or grievous offences. The convict can be executed in one of the following ways;

- Beheading by an Executioner of the Crown*
- Hanging*
- Firing Squad*
